Samuel (Sammy) Charles Katz

212 E. Brownstone Avenue   (317) 607-7215
Bloomington, IN 47408   samuelckatz@gmail.com

Technical expert with proven communication skills, uses a collaborative, creative approach to solve problems and evolve organizations; immediate contributions to be realized in a data analysis, marketing, or project management role; keen interest in data sciences.

Education

Indiana University – Bloomington, IN   August 2016

B.S. in Informatics; Kelly School of Business minor
GPA: 3.3

Accomplishments and student involvement
- Course instructor: 'Introduction to Informatics"
- Fall 2015 Study Abroad program – Hyderabad, India
- African American Choral Ensemble, including eight day tour in Germany
- National Society of Collegiate Scholars member
- Assistant Director for the Live From Bloomington office of the Union Board
- Little 500 Cyclist

Internships and Experience

Max Katz Bag Company – Indianapolis, IN   Summer 2015
Technical Assistant
- Pioneered a streamlined communication from warehouse to central database, enabling real-time inventory updates from the loading dock.
- Projects summary:
  - Installed Mesh wireless routers to create a buildingwide single SSID cohesive network
  - Developed tablet interface to report shipment receipt and readiness to ship

Jewish Federation of Greater Indianapolis
Technical Consultant – Indianapolis, IN   Summer 2013
- Expanded reporting capability by teaching members excel and data management techniques
- Grant writing (particular case: recycling bin acquisition)

Skills

Technical: Python, HTML, CSS, SQL, statistics, Microsoft Office, basic JavaScript and PHP
Foreign Languages: intermediate Hebrew, basic Spanish and Hindi
Social: effective communicator, public speaker, practiced networker
Music: guitar, ukulele, Indian sitar, piano